Gods and Humans in the Ancient Near East - Tyson L. Putthoff 2020-09-30

In this book, Tyson Putthoff explores the relationship between gods and humans, and between divine nature and human nature, in the Ancient Near East. In this world, gods lived among humans. The two groups shared the world with one another, each playing a special role in maintaining order in the cosmos. Humans also shared aspects of a godlike nature. Even in their natural condition, humans enjoyed a taste of the divine state. Indeed, gods not only lived among humans, but also they lived inside them, taking up residence in the physical body. As such, human nature was actually a composite of humanity and divinity. Putthoff offers new insights into the ancients' understanding of humanity's relationship with the gods, providing a comparative study of this phenomenon from the third millennium BCE to the first century CE. Hands of Light - Barbara Ann Brennan 2011-03-23

With the clarity of a physicist and the compassion of a gifted healer with fifteen years of professional experience observing 5,000 clients and students, Barbara Ann Brennan presents the first in-depth study of the human energy field for people who seek happiness, health and their full potential. Our physical bodies exist within a larger "body," a human energy field or aura, which is the vehicle through which we create our experience of reality, including health and illness. It is through this energy field that we have the power to heal ourselves. This energy body -- only recently verified by scientists, but long known to healers and mystics -- is the starting point of all illness. Here, our most powerful and profound human interactions take place, the precursor and healer of all physiological and emotional disturbances. Hands of Light is your guide to a new wholeness. It offers:

- A new paradigm for the human, in health, relationship, and disease
- An understanding of how the human energy field looks, functions, is disturbed, healed, and interacts with friends and lovers.
- Training in the ability to see and interpret auras
- Medically verified case studies of healing people from all walks of life with a variety of illnesses.
- Guidelines for healing the self and others.
- The author's personal and intriguing life adventure which gives us a model for growth, courage and possibilities for expanded consciousness

Light Pollution as a New Risk Factor for Human Breast and Prostate Cancers - Abraham Haim 2013-06-03

Humans are diurnal organisms whose biological clock and temporal organization depend on natural light/dark cycles. Changes in the photoperiod are a signal for seasonal acclimatization of physiological and immune systems as well as behavioral patterns. The invention of electrical light bulbs created more opportunities for work and leisure. However, exposure to artificial light at night (LAN) affects our biological clock, and suppresses pineal melatonin (MLT) production. Among its other properties, MLT is an antioncogenic agent, and therefore its suppression increases the risks of developing breast and prostate cancers (BC&PC). To the best of our knowledge, this book is the first to address the linkage between light pollution and BC&PC in humans. It explains several state-of-the-art theories, linking light pollution with BC&PC. It also illustrates research hypotheses about health effects of light pollution using the results of animal models and population-based studies.

The Third Path - Bud Carroll 2013-08-01

"When I finished reading this book, all I could say was WOW! What a stunning piece of literary work... It is concise, brilliantly written, backed by scientific findings, with clear human logic and intelligence. If this doesn't awaken the masses to delve into who and what they truly are, I can't imagine what will." ~ Jerry Issa, teacher of metaphysics, Trenton, Michigan This book will change your life if you let it. If we are accidental beings on a remote planet in a vast universe, existing for merely a blip in cosmic time, what's the point of living at all? Until we learn life is too significant to be a short-lived brilliance that rises out of nothing and ends in nothing, we will continue to live out our lives in, what Thoreau saw as, quiet desperation. We sense the materialistic wall when we ask the question, "Is that all there is?" Without resorting to miracles or magic, this book provides compelling evidence of life beyond the physical world by logically investigating the limitations of matter in the universe, by examining the gaps in scientific theories and by analyzing what the mystics already know about a spiritual existence. It takes a dedicated seeker with no preconceived ideas and no intent on arriving to see beyond the materialistic wall. This book is intended to expand your awareness of life here and hereafter, hopefully providing the spark that will start you on your own personal pilgrimage. The mystics tell us we will be guided to the next step along our spiritual path when we are ready. Are you ready? AWARENESS: The following might be the thoughts of those at different levels of awareness as they walk through a rose garden. I want - I wonder how much I could get for these roses. I believe - God created roses when He created the world and everything in it. I doubt - Roses evolved from wild flowering shrubs, but most garden varieties are hybrids. I seek - How could anything as beautiful as a rose happen purely by chance? I know - Roses, like all life on Earth, are physical manifestations of spirit.

Healing With Light Language - Green Leatherr 2021-07-25

Have you ever really listened to the way you talk to people? Have you truly listened to the way you speak? What is it like? Whenever I hear my voice, I feel strange. Is that really me? Recorded voices are even weirder, like disembodied little pieces of me. My voice sounds like it is coming from afar. But language has never really been limited by voice. It is a medium of communication that connects you to someone else. Speech can be constrained by culture, but it can also be free to transform into something else. We have sign language, Braille, and other forms that transcend different types of ability. However, nothing is like the light language. Light language is a means of communication that is more spiritual than intellectual. It connects you to a Higher Being or the Universe instead of merely connecting you to another human. This book will help you: Define and understand light language Use light language to heal various types of conditions Ascend in wisdom and the spirit Pass on your knowledge to others who need it

Koyopa: Contact Within - Eileen Meyer 2017-03-18

The courageous story of how one American woman transcended normal. That is, she rediscovered the natural human state beneath the past trauma and conditioning of "life as we've always known it." Her transformational story is told through the inner, feminine view of a lifetime of Angel-ET visits, and numerous Kundalini-Koyopa episodes in the physical body. The nonhuman intelligence "spoke" in frequency, and informed her of humanity's evolutionary leap in consciousness at this definitive crossroads in time. She was shown that everyone is wired within to accept, integrate, and move forward with these shifts, but it is a choice. Through a unique practice of honesty and innocence, she was guided to tune into and translate the resonance which began "filling in" the bulk of what had been conditioned out of most of humanity - the feeling-knowing wisdom of the feminine. The more she adapted to her own signature frequency, the more she felt and understood the universal tones of nonhuman intelligence. It made for a challenging life of attempting to appear normal, even when each visit would wipe out her entire worldview. Ultimately, a critical fork-in-the-road decision needed to be made: Be true to herself and honest with her community about what she was experiencing and remembering; or squish back into the insane, tight masks and clothing of conditioning that we were taught to believe was "life." There is so much more. In the change of cycles, the Maya prophesied the Return of the Plumed Serpent. This story points to a 26,000 year old alignment - in both the cosmos and the human body. The Author states that words and concepts don't really matter in these high-vibratory states - because when they occur, you cannot think. It's more about adapting to high frequencies in the body, healing and releasing the past, practicing present-moment attention, and embracing wave after wave of body-mind-spirit upgrades. Through her lifetime of experiences and the resonant practices given through this field of Love, the author provides a roadmap for you to navigate this revolutionary contact within. Should you choose to grow up and out of the old matrix, this book has plenty of inspiration, pragmatic guidance, and encouragement.

Living Energy - Robert Campagnola 2014-03-19

The life force, also known as "spirit," is the essence of being and the conscious and most important form of energy. Living energy is personal and within our conscious control, and by learning about it, we can use it to transform our life into vibrant and meaningful expressions of who we really are. Consciousness is purely energetic and therefore difficult to quantify in mechanistic terms. It is the characteristic of living energy and is the foundation of awareness. Consciousness is the thread running through all life. Living Energy is an introduction to the process of mystic spirituality. The reader is encouraged to attain a deep and meaningful connection to the divine with expanded awareness. The principles given in this book are equally relevant to the novice and the advanced practitioner. Robert explains how we may reveal our hidden potential by shifting our perception away from what is customary and comfortable to open the doors to greater spiritual awareness.

Radiant Human - Christina Lonsdale 2021-04-27

A revolutionary exploration of the relationship between human energy and color, visualized through more than 200 photographs from the “the Annie Leibovitz of aura photography” (New York Times) and a “Dutch painter on acid” (Vogue). The prodigal daughter of a visionary painter mother and a two-time commune founding father, Christina Lonsdale was raised by her parents on a commune in Taos, New Mexico, at the dawn of the digital age in the 1990s—formative years when science (the advent of the worldwide web, the introduction of the cell phone) and spiritualism (New Age) occupied equal bandwidth. Having her aura photograph taken awoke a passion that combined her spiritual and technological interests (an aura is an energy field emanating around a living being comprised of mental, spiritual, and emotional levels; an aura camera captures the colors of the aura on Polaroid film). With her first aura camera—the Auracam 6000—she began photographing and analyzing family and friends, then in 2014, took her skills and equipment on the road. Radiant Human includes hundreds of Polaroids selected from the author’s vast archives of some 45,000 images she has taken over a six-year period. The book explores the nature of the human aura, and the notion that aura images may not only capture a person’s essence in that moment, but reveal characteristics of their overall disposition. As Lonsdale describes what all the colors suggest, considering their many variations and nuances, and in relationship to each other. To illuminate her discoveries, she shares her subjects’ stories throughout the book, sometimes accompanied by a single shot, other times by a series of images taken over a period of year. She also includes profiles of well-known people she has photographed including Chloë Sevigny, Joseph Altuzarra, Busy Philipps, and SZA. Lonsdale makes clear that we are not just physical bodies, but collections of energy as well—giving consideration to the relationship of how we present ourselves to the world and who we are as well as the potential reality of the space in between. Her aura work is a study of humanity, and the energy we radiate and receive—the good, the bad, and the weird vibes—helping us understand better who we are.

Wonderfully Made - Arthur I. Brown 1996

Baby Light - Ina/I Gjikondi/G 2016-08-05

Baby Light is a story of love. It’s a journey of a family coming together to play and create a new narrative. It’s a celebration of the life around us, and a tribute to the sources of nourishment and inspiration that enliven our soul everyday. Light is everywhere in the universe. It’s our source of life and renewal. Baby Light offers a simple and powerful perspective in looking at what light is all about, through inquiry and playfulness. It’s a way to go deeper with how beauty affects us right NOW; It’s about building a mindful life, one that inspires an open mind, an open heart and an open will. Baby Light story aims to be a dialogue builder, a new way of creating a space for children and parents, for families, to celebrate beauty everyday. Baby Light is a light particle, which travels together with the child through the day. In this journey the child inquires with his genuine curiosity and the parents, educators or coaches support him/her to find his/her own truth allowing the imagination to flow openly. Baby light is a prism that breaks light into visible colors for the human eye to see. It’s composed by the three basic shapes, that of the square, triangle and circle and it pops up in every page of the book, also offering a sense of surprise. You can also read this book in chunks, because every bit may create the opportunity to further explore wherever the child’s imagination takes you. Baby Light Book helps to observe light from a dynamic lens of inquiry, through the eyes of a child by engaging the whole being. This supports the child to build competency in 6(six) developmental streams: cognitive, relational, emotional, somatic, spiritual and integrating. (I attribute these 6 streams to New Ventures West, the coaching school that has been a great foundation for my personal development). These six questions help explore: What is light? (Cognitive) What feelings does it evoke? (Emotional) What happens in your body when light shows up? (Somatic) What is your relationship with light? (Relational) What’s its impact in the universe? (Spiritual) What’s your story about light? (Integrating) Baby Light is part of the Hadrian Series, a community that supports the growth and the development of children, families and all of us as “human becomings” through embodied conversations and creative expression, celebrating the wonders of life everyday. Our vision is to create spaces for families and communities to learn, explore and play together. Our desire is to contribute in the cultivation of a mindful life, one that allows human beings to nurture focus and attention, and make choices with an open mind, open heart and open will. Hadrian

Series has come to being as a way to respond to this intention, by offering parents, coaches and educators a new narrative to support children in their growth developmentally. This is a two-way path. While the intention is to support the child, through the conversation (from Latin: conversare- means to turn to one another), we create our dance of language that brings both the adult and the child together into a discovery, a new narrative that they co-create in partnership.

The Sacred Fire of the Phoenix - Robin Sacredfire 2014-09-16

There’s a sacred and hidden path inside each one of us, a path of mysteries and amazing manifestations, where nothing is impossible, not even our wildest spiritual creations. This is the realm of impossibilities, where imagination is carried away by a spiritual insight, which is here referred as the phoenix. The allegory inside this book takes us to a subconscious realm, that can lead us to the most uplifting and unknown side of ourselves, but also to other realities as well, namely, the ones that are parallel to ours, and also other dimensions and galaxies. It is with this allegory of the phoenix that we understand the role of the dragons and serpents of our planet, and how they interfere in the Tao of our existence. As a dance of forces, vibrations of different natures, these symbols and concepts take us to the deepest truth within, of who we are and how far can we go. This is a book about the adventures of our soul, the journey within that so many Shamans live to explore. It’s also about a path that all spiritualists and gurus have experienced, a path that some have called nirvana, enlightenment or awaking, but few have ever had the ability to fully describe in a way that can be perceived by the common mortal. The Native Americans have often told us about the spirit of the eagle that keeps guard over the spiritual world. This eagle, or big bird, is representative of another living force, which is the phoenix, the bird of fire. This is why many mystics of ancient times believed that only fire could take souls to another world. The fire purifies the body, but the most potent fire comes from within, as an energy that we burn with our conscious awareness. This is the fire that Buddhists, Taoists and Hindus persist in awakening from within, commonly using disciplines created specifically for this purpose, such as yoga, chikung and meditation. This fire represents the power of our own spirituality, which most people are unaware to possess. As mortals and genetically manipulated slaves of a few alien species, we’ve lost the physical capability to ignite it. But the phoenix can help us reach it, through the spiritual nature that is within each one of us. The one who can ride the phoenix, can travel very far, to amazing lands. And these are the ones that often come back, when they choose to, as our prophets and religious leaders. This book describes their journey to Valhalla, Heaven, Paradise, or more simply, the Laboratory of God.

Progressive Creation and the Struggles of Humanity in the Bible - Zoltan Dornyei 2018-03-22

Why does the Christian walk often feel like an ongoing struggle and why does God’s creation include imperfection, let alone forces that are intent on thwarting God’s creative work? In seeking a response to these questions, this book argues that the biblical accounts describe creation in terms of a progressive transformation process whereby the initially incomplete created order will reach perfection only in the fulfillment of new creation. The following discussion then outlines a comprehensive framework for the biblical theology of humanity’s struggles, centered on three key themes: corporeal temptation, deficient social structures, and the much-debated notion of spiritual warfare. The book presents an overarching canonical narrative that threads together a series of diverse biblical topics, from Job’s temptation to the Atonement. The final part surveys biblical teaching on how human conduct can be aligned with God’s creative purpose, and discusses three “assignments” from Jesus to believers: to celebrate the Eucharist, to pray the Lord’s Prayer, and to fulfill the Great Commission.

Deeper Secrets of Human Evolution in the Light of the Gospels - Rudolf Steiner 2021-10-14

‘The personality who received the Christ Being into himself in his thirtieth year is a complex entelechy. Only on the basis of the Akashic Record can an accurate view be gained as to why the life of Jesus is so diversely presented in the various Gospels...’ – Rudolf Steiner Previously untranslated, this collection of twelve lectures represents a middle point in Rudolf Steiner’s unique exposition of the Christian gospels – his momentous courses on St John and St Luke had already been delivered, whilst his lectures on the Matthew and Mark gospels were yet to follow. Here, he examines the varying depictions of Christ in the gospels, explaining that they represent four different but complementary perspectives. Steiner’s unparalleled insights are based on his firsthand ability to research the spiritual Akashic Record - the universal compendium of all events, thoughts, emotions and intentions. The twelve lectures include: 'The Gospels, Buddha and the two Jesus children'; 'Four varying depictions of Christ in the four Gospels'; 'The Mission of the ancient Hebrew people'; 'Preparations for an understanding of the Christ Event'; 'On the right attitude to Anthroposophy'; 'The Gospel of Matthew and the Christ conundrum'; 'Group souls and Individuality'; 'God within and the God in outer manifestation'; 'The Christmas tree as a symbol'; and 'A Christmas mood'. Translated by Christiana Bryan, this volume features an introduction by Tom Ravetz as well as notes and an index.

The Duality of Being - Susan Nicholas, MD 2018-10-24

The Duality of Being details my life and the convoluted journey I made into higher realms of consciousness through my out-of-body travels. In this book, I will share with you the perspectives I've gained that have improved my quality of life, decisions, and relationships. Each of us has the innate ability to separate our life energy from our physical body and travel into faraway dimensions. Many who have experienced multidimensional travel have had a near-death experience that led to this life-changing phenomenon. Others, like myself, have for many years traveled spontaneously into distant realms and this book details the many discoveries. Though this type of energetic travel cannot be measured or assessed with current scientific tools, it is as real an experience as traveling by airplane to visit coveted locations around the world. If my experience is any indication, multidimensional travel is available to us all and offers us a gateway into higher or expanded levels of consciousness. True consciousness comes from the expanded awareness that you are infinitely more than your physical body and that reality is a concept far beyond our physical world.

The Human Body of Light - Mitchell Earl Gibson MD 2014-03-22

According to legend, a number of ancient spiritual masters have dissolved their physical bodies into pure energy. Most used special exercises and techniques that had to be applied over a period of years, the results of which were the total transformation of the physical form into a form of self sustaining light energy. The new light form was immortal and indestructible. Somehow, these legends have not made it into our Western lexicon. The Body of Light represents a complete and total and radical transformation of one's status of being, a rediscovery of what was primordially present, and this condition is permanent. It is Awareness itself and is dependent on nothing else. This may be compared to the various Christian notions of transfiguration, resurrection, and ascension. There exists in history many examples of the successful completion of this process. Even in recent years there have been a number of Tibetan Lamas, both Buddhist and Bon-po, who attained realization of the Rainbow Body ('ja-lus-pa) at the end of their lives and some of these occurrences were witnessed by Chinese Communist officials. In this book The Human Body of Light, board-certified psychiatrist and author Dr. Mitchell Earl Gibson explores this fascinating arena of human potential. This book is designed to explore one question; is it possible for the human body to evolve into pure energy? Through meticulous research and one-of-a-kind insightful observations, The Human Body of Light explores the real phenomenon of an extraordinary type of human evolution. The realizations that accompany this knowledge has the potential to change our understanding of what it means to be human.

Essay on the connexion of the soul with the body, as a sequel to the essay on the origin of knowledge - John WALKER (Roman Catholic Priest, of Kenilworth.) 1858

Human Rights and the Body - Dr Annabelle Mooney 2014-09-28

Human Rights and the Body is a response to the crisis in human rights, to the very real concern that without a secure foundation for the concept of human rights, their very existence is threatened. While there has been consideration of the discourses of human rights and the way in which the body is written upon, research in linguistics has not yet been fully brought to bear on either human rights or the body. Drawing on legal concepts and aspects of the law of human rights, Mooney aims to provide a universally defensible set of human rights and a foundation, or rather a frame, for them. She argues that the proper frames for human rights are firstly the human body, seen as an index reliant on the natural world, secondly the globe and finally, language. These three frames generate rights to food, water, sleep and shelter, environmental protection and a right against dehumanization. This book is essential reading for researchers and graduate students in the fields of human rights and semiotics of law.

Sirius the Ascended Masters Light the Way - Darla Cody 2015-08-22

Darla Cody had a near-death experience in 1991, which started her journey away from the materialistic, American life into one of questioning true happiness. It would take another accident in 1994 before she actually changed her lifestyle into a quest for truth in the spiritual realm. Cody connected with her spirit guides, who told her to visit sacred sites around the world, which first led her down Egypt's Nile River, where she received wisdom from the many sites of ancient knowledge there. Inside an ancient Egyptian temple she became "reacquainted" with Isis, who told her to go to the east gate to receive divine information. Just as in ancient times, Isis and other spirit guides were once again bringing personal messages to seekers. From Egypt, she was called to the Himalayas to see Babaji and the ascended masters of the Great White Brotherhood. St. Germain led her to the Valley of the Flowers and the Sacred Lake on the border of China among the Seven Sacred Peaks, where she was initiated by Lord Maitreya, St. Germain, Quan Yin and Babaji. Sai Baba - an avatar living in India at the time - began communicating with her via mental telepathy, asking her to help him by teaching others about his works. And this book followed. Sirius: Understanding Ancient Wisdom for Spiritual Ascension enhances your understanding of your evolution and ascension process, by answering questions like What is the Hierarchy, and what are the major departments of the ascended masters? Who were the ascended masters in their past lives? How can I connect with the ascended master who is right for me today? How do the seven rays relate to the ascended masters and to me? What initiations must I go through, and what is that process? How does Shambhala - the City of White - relate to humanity and Sanat Kumara, the Planetary Logos? Our Light Body - Mary Rabyor 2012-04

Human beings are now evolving into a new species, popularized as the light body that starts to grow when our vibration is high enough to activate DNA that exists in our genes. The growing force increases the vibration of all objects over time. When the old body design no longer thrives in the increased vibratory field a species wide metamorphosis triggers. That is where we are today. In early 2006, Mary unexpectedly experienced a kundalini awakening after years of doing meditation. After this, she devoted three years full-time to the kundalini transformation and took daily notes. The core of Our Light Body is Mary's journal for the first year of kundalini transformation with notes, poetry, insights, visions and dreams. The book has chapters with the author's insights about the personality, the higher-self, steps of spiritual awakening, dark nights of the soul, DNA activation, kundalini, human metamorphosis and evolution.
